

OCTOBER 14-16 • 2018

THE NORTHWEST RENTAL CONFERENCE

Seaside, Oregon, will host the 2018 Northwest Rental Conference October 14-16, 2018!

In addition to all the activities included in our 2018 Conference, Seaside offers a beautiful location and many great things to see and do. It is Oregon's first seashore resort and one of the state's most popular year-round family destinations. With its beach-themed shops, restaurants and arcades, it is an ideal location for our 2018 Northwest Rental Conference!

Attractions include the 1.5-mile Seaside Promenade, first constructed as a wooden boardwalk in the early 20th century and now a centerpiece of Seaside's beach; the Seaside Aquarium, one of the oldest aquariums on the West Coast; and the Seaside Carousel Mall, located two blocks from the Pacific Ocean and built around a replica of a classic carousel.

OREGON

Among the many historical attractions are Fort Clatsop, the winter encampment for the Lewis and Clark expedition from December 1805 to March 1806, and the Lewis & Clark Saltworks, where salt water was boiled to extract salt.

Welcome to Seaside!

A trip to Seaside wouldn't be complete without visiting the beaches in and near the city!

The beach at Seaside stretches for three miles and about half of it is bordered by the Promenade, a paved walkway that separates the beach from the town. Ecola State Park is seven miles south of Seaside along Highway 101. From the Indian Beach parking area, you can walk down to Indian Beach or hike a mile down to Crescent Beach. Cannon Beach, a four-mile-long beach nine miles south of Seaside, is famous for Haystack Rock, a 235-foot rock formation that juts out of the Pacific Ocean. Del Rey Beach is three miles north of Seaside on Highway 101. The beach is a short walk over grassy dunes from the parking lot.
